El Camino Has Most Modern Auto Body Shop in State

Putting 'Old Lizzie' back into shape can be either very expensive or very exasperating for most people. This is not true, however, for persons enrolled in El Camino College's vocational auto mechanics course.

their autos repaired by the auto shop students free of charge, except for parts. This service, of course, is done voluntarily.

Susan Celebrates 12th Birthday

Susan Klaesges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Klaesges, recently celebrated her 12th birthday with a buffet supper served in the patio of her home.

Charles Toynbee, a former Army officer, is in charge of the 65 students currently enrolled in his classes.

An instructor at El Camino since 1948, the first crop of students he greeted was composed mainly of ex-G.I.s. Toynbee recalls how the situation differed then.

The building which houses the automotive shop now was built in 1950. Under the same roof L. Stepp.

Sending gifts but unable to attend were Mary Carol Dickerson and Patricia Hughes. Gifts also were received from Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Klaesges, grandparents, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Strege, aunt and uncle, of Minneapolis, Minnesota.

are the carpentry, refrigeration and welding shops.

In addition to a busy daytime schedule, Toynbee instructs two evening classes. One, a basic engine maintenance and repair class, is primarily composed of persons in the area who are not regular full-time students.

The other, an advanced class entitled Engine Tune-up and Power Test, has approximately 30 per cent enrollment of local mechanics and garagemen.

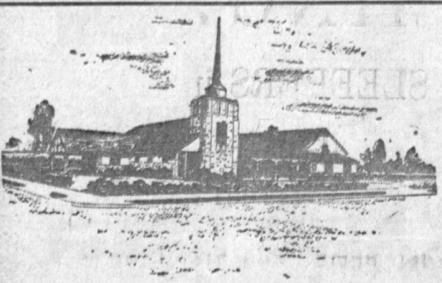

First year students are primarily concerned with a general understanding and working knowledge of the engine and its related systems and parts.

Come Unto Me and I will Give You Rest! To those weary in mind (and spirit) ... those heavy laden by the cares of life ... those whose hearts are broken by sin and sorrow ... To all of those Jesus Offers Peace.

Set Drive For Float Expenses

The Torrance Chamber of Commerce announced that its Float Chairman, George A. Bradford, will start a "grass roots" house-to-house collection drive this week to raise funds for Torrance's entry in the Tournament of Roses Parade on New Year's Day.

Bradford said leaders of the North Torrance Fuchsia Society and the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association will handle the drive with help from individuals.

The float will be decorated by a committee headed by last year's prize-winning chairman, Mrs. Victor E. Benstead. It will be designed by the famous Mrs. Isabella Coleman who also designed the Torrance third-place winner in last year's classic.

Bradford added that the entry will cost approximately $5000 of which almost $3000 needs to be raised. The Chairman said slightly over $2000 was derived as proceeds of the Torrance Ranchero Days held in July but that local firms and individuals are being asked to support the entry.

Anyone desiring to assist the drive may send his donation to the Chamber office, 1345 El Prado, Bradford added.

Error Corrected In South High Class Buildings

A change in the type of footing for two classroom buildings at South High School was approved by the Torrance Board of Education Tuesday night, due to an apparent error on the part of a soil-testing laboratory.

The two classroom buildings, scheduled to open in September, were designed with five-foot spread footings, based on the laboratory report that the ground would hold up to 1850 pounds pressure per square foot.

When work on the classrooms began, it was found that the ground would hold less than 1000 pounds pressure per square inch. This type of ground will require 30-foot caissons to support the building. The soil content on various parts of the 40-acre site varies considerably.

Although redesign of the footings for the buildings has caused delay in starting work on them, school officials hope that they will be ready for use next September.
